TFT HONORS TENNIS GARDEN ENTREPRENEUR CHARLIE PASARELL

Charlie Pasarell

For his vision, his entrepreneurial spirit, and his humanitarian heart, Charlie Pasarell will be honored at the Tools For Tomorrow 2016 Vision For the Future Award Luncheon.

“Tennis Prince of the Desert,” “Desert Fox,” name it . . .

Charlie Pasarell fits the bill. Among his scores of local accomplishments: building the Indian Wells Tennis Garden, his involvement with Tiempo de Los Ninos to build their pediatric, neonatal wing at Desert Medical Center, his support of the Barbara Sinatra Children’s Foundation, and Tools For Tomorrow; and, nationally, the National Junior Tennis League that he founded in 1969 with his best friend and UCLA roommate, Arthur Ashe.

Ranked #1 in the U.S. in 1967 and in the “Top Ten” eleven times between 1962 to 1974, Charlie Pasarell’s induction into the International Tennis Hall of Fame in 2013 established him as one of the most impactful figures in the world of tennis. His other numerous honors and awards are equally impressive.

But what makes Charlie Pasarell great is his amazing foresight, his creativity and his commitment to children and the community. It is for these reasons that the VISIONARIES of Tools For Tomorrow honor him at the Vision for the Future Award Luncheon, on Monday, March 21, 2016 at the Renaissance Hotel, Indian Wells Resort & Spa.

Google Charlie Pasarell to see how the man surpasses the myth.

TFT ADDS SPECIAL NEEDS CLASS

Eighteen special needs students at Bubbling Wells Elementary in Desert Hot Springs have the advantage of the regular TFT curriculum, modified to meet their needs. A specially trained teacher has been hired, as well as an assistant and support staff assigned to the individual child. This pilot program is the first of its kind in the Coachella Valley. A grant from the Anderson Children’s Foundation underwrites this class.

TFT ADDS THREE NEW BOARD MEMBERS

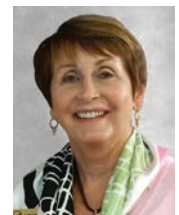

The new TFT board members bring a breadth of unique skills, experience in working with nonprofits, and a passion for children: Judith Antonio, fashion consultant and businesswoman, Chairman of the Visionaries; Mary Perry, Public Information Officer for the Desert Sands Unified School District and a marketing communications professional; and Tim Martin, educator and school administrator with a background in musical theater production for children, active in community service organizations.

Tools For Tomorrow provides an on-site, integrated “hands-on” arts literacy programs to “at risk” children at no cost to the children. The program is designed to supplement the children’s daily educational experience, nurture their creativity, enhance their self-esteem, build character, expand their intellectual and cultural horizons, providing them with a coping mechanism for the future and a vision of what their lives can become.

A MESSAGE FROM CHAIRMAN & CEO

Jim Reed

It is my pleasure to welcome our three new Tools For Tomorrow Board Members, Mary Perry, Tim Martin and VISIONARIES Chairman, Judith Antonio. These strong additions to our board bode well for the future of Tools For Tomorrow.

On another positive note, we will be bringing the Tools For Tomorrow experience to a class of mildly to moderately learning disabled children this year. Your continued support for this and other TFT programs is sincerely appreciated. Our Vice President and CFO Bob Hopkins wants to add that 86% of your donations go directly to support these programs. Jim Reed

TFT Budget Allocation

■ TFT Program - 86% ■ Overhead - 14%

A portion of the overhead is covered by the income from the Noël Bryant Endowment Fund.

TFT MEETS THE PRINCIPALS

Tools for Tomorrow recently held an open house at their offices in Palm Desert. In addition to an opportunity for principals to provide feedback about the program, certificates of appreciation were presented. There are currently 15 schools providing Tools for Tomorrow programs across the valley.

OBSERVING THE MONA LISA

*I think Mona Lisa is insane
 She looks happy, but what's deep behind that smile?
 She can be mad, sad, broken inside.
 Or is she just happy?
 She does have to stay there...
 so she may be mad or sad.*

Jordan T., age 10

THE FLY

*My little sister saw a fly
 It flew past her eye and she began to cry
 Mean old fly you made my sister cry*

SCALI ISLAND

*On my island I will have a hut to live in with a memory foam bed.
 On my island I catch wild pigs and
 I would smoke the pig.
 I could surf on my island.
 The water would be crystal blue.
 The water would be at the perfect temperature.
 There would be a stream leading from the ocean
 that I could bathe in.
 On the island a volcano that looks about to erupt.
 On my island I will feel white sand in my toes.
 I will have a blanket and an umbrella next to a coconut tree and a strawberry bush.*

FAST

*Fast is a dream that never has a speed limit
 No one can ever slow you down
 When you're fast the world seems very small*

VISIONARIES CONTINUE TO SOAR!!

Judith Antonio

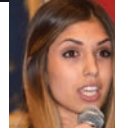

What an exciting second year for The VISIONARIES with two highly successful events. The first, a tribute to Tools For Tomorrow founder Rachel Druten at the Heather James gallery where 200+ people sipped champagne and enjoyed a special evening of art and entertainment. Our annual Vision for the Future Luncheon, honoring Harold Matzner, was the biggest and best yet with almost 250 supporters attending.

Vicky's of Santa Fe generously donated $2,500 to TFT from their Monday night Cabaret Series and through your generous support we raised $138,000. A wonderful second year, ending with 90 members, a number we hope to double in 2015-2016. To achieve that goal our season kick-off event is a membership drive: Sunday in the Park with Patty and Arthur Newman. Mark your calendars for Sunday (of course), November 22. Expect food, entertainment and a live auction. Bring a friend, to support Tools for Tomorrow and enjoy a wonderful afternoon!

Our first dance party Musical Memories is on Sunday, January 31 at Spencers at the Mountain. Join us as we dance away the evening and pay tribute to our own Jennie Inch.

Finally, the Vision of The Future Luncheon honoring Charlie Pasarell, philanthropist and true visionary who developed the Indian Wells Tennis Garden. Past honorees Donna MacMillian and Harold Matzner will be honorary chairmen. The luncheon will be held on Monday, March 21 at the Renaissance Hotel. We are especially happy to welcome back Joyce Bulifant as program director and Karen and Tony Barone with their wonderful art.

As you can see we have a fun-packed year. Many thanks to those attending last year's events, we hope to see you and your friends back this year. A big thank you to the VISIONARIES board members who have worked so hard over the summer to plan these fantastic events. Judith Antonio, VISIONARIES Chairman

HAROLD MATZNER HONORED . . .

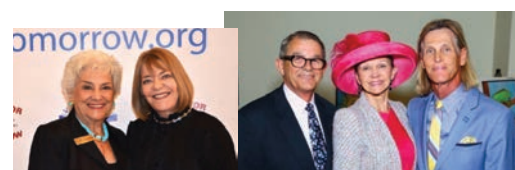

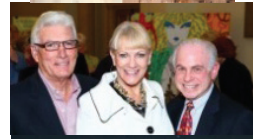

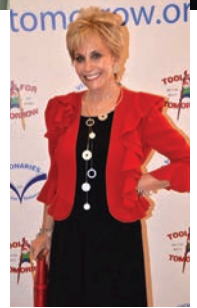

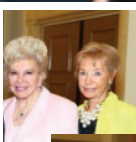

Guests swarmed the red carpet of the Westin Mission Hills Resort between a pair of gigantic animal sculptures created by Karen and Tony Barone and entered a lobby teeming with color, festivity, art, and the throb of Broadway by TFT teacher David Hirsch at the piano.

Event chairman C.J. Westerick-Bomar's unique brand of imagination and dedication was evident in every aspect of the afternoon, from the music she chose, to the film she created, to the choice of food and flowers, and to the children's choreography. This spirit of generosity and joy continued with the animated remarks by MC Patrick Evans, banter between Honorary Chair, Donna MacMillan and her pal Honoree Harold Matzner, and finally the presentation of the elegant Vision for the Future Award created and donated by Karen and Tony Barone.

But without doubt, the most profoundly touching moments were those created by the man of the hour, Harold Matzner, sharing his heartfelt thoughts about children, about expanding their horizons and opportunities through the arts, and his gracious and generous support and appreciation of the Tools For Tomorrow program.

Among the over 250 guests were major sponsors: Rebecca Benaroya, Arlene Schnitzer, Sherrie & Ronald Auen, JoAnn McGrath, Jan Salta, Carol Curtis, Geof Kirsch, Barbara Fremont, Helene Galen, Jennie and Bob Inch, Janice Lyle, Judy Morley, Bob Williams, CJ Westrick-Bomar, Tom Bomar, Jerome Angel, Judith Antonio, Lee Appel, Mary Ellen Blanton, Susan DeNoewer, Richard Hedwall, Louise Escoc, Cheryl Fey, Suzanne and Michael Fromkin, Victory and Richard Grund, Kay Hanson, Anne and Bob Hopkins, James R. Houston, Donna and Douglas Martin, Charles and Nancy Nevil, Linda Rider, Irma and Bob Smith, Kathy Valentine and Kelly Dougherty.

Recognition Awards were presented prior to lunch to: Claire Smith, VISIONARIES of TFT Founder; David Hirsch, Rachel Bryant Druten Founders Award; Jazlyn Munoz, Daryl Timmons Bryant Art Spirit Award.
